Admissions are highly competitive. It is to the applicant’s advantage to submit relevant admissions material to the Department of Statistics as soon as possible. For students who would like to begin study in September, some decisions are made during January and most are made by mid-February. Return this form along with the nonrefundable $55 application fee (payable to Carnegie Mellon University) by January 1 to: Graduate Admissions; Department of Statistics; Carnegie Mellon University; Pittsburgh, PA 15213-3890.

The following material should be sent as soon as possible thereafter.

1. Official transcripts of all college or university work to date.
2. A copy from the Educational Testing Service (ETS) of your scores on the aptitude section of the Graduate Record Examination. (You may send a photocopy of your scores along with this application; however, official scores are required.)
3. Three letters of recommendation evaluating your potential for graduate study from persons who know you well, including at least two professors. (These should be sent directly to the Department of Statistics.)
4. Your TOEFL and TSE scores, if applicable.

Carnegie Mellon University does not discriminate and Carnegie Mellon University is required not to discriminate in admission, employment, or administration of its programs or activities on the basis of race, color, national origin, sex or handicap in violation of Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, Title IX of the Educational Amendments of 1972 and Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 or other federal, state, or local laws or executive orders. In addition, Carnegie Mellon University does not discriminate in admission, employment, or administration of its programs on the basis of religion, creed, ancestry, belief, age, veteran status, sexual orientation or in violation of federal, state, or local laws or executive orders. However, in the judgment of the Carnegie Mellon Human Relations Commission, the Department of Defense policy of “Don’t ask, don’t tell, don’t pursue” excludes openly gay, lesbian and bisexual students from receiving ROTC scholarships or serving in the military. Nevertheless, all ROTC classes at Carnegie Mellon University are available to all students. Inquiries concerning application of these statements should be directed to the Provost, Carnegie Mellon University, 5000 Forbes Avenue, Pittsburgh, PA 15213, telephone (412) 268-6684 or the Vice President for Enrollment, Carnegie Mellon University, 5000 Forbes Avenue, Pittsburgh, PA 15213, telephone (412) 268-2056. Obtain general information about Carnegie Mellon University by calling (412) 268-2000.

Federal and state law require colleges and universities to inform all applicants of campus security statistics and policies concerning campus security. Carnegie Mellon University publishes an annual campus security report describing the university’s security, alcohol and drug, and sexual assault policies and containing statistics about the number and type of crimes committed on the campus during the preceding three years. You can obtain a copy by contacting the Carnegie Mellon Police Department at 412-268-2323. The security report is available through the World Wide Web at www.cmu.edu/security
